NUI Dr Garret FitzGerald Post-Doctoral Fellowship in the Social Sciences

NUI Dr Garret FitzGerald Post-Doctoral Fellowship in the Social Sciences 2018

€40,000

NUI is pleased to offer a one-year Post-Doctoral Fellowship valued at €40,000 for competition. This Fellowship will be based in the NUI offices in Dublin.

Background

The NUI Dr Garret FitzGerald Post-Doctoral Fellowship in the Social Sciences was established to honour the memory of the late Chancellor of NUI, who died in 2011. The Fellowship is offered to support the work of the NUI Education and Society Committee. Through that Committee, NUI seeks to pursue a discursive role in Irish society by promoting research, debate and discussion of major issues, and in addition, to promote the advancement of Higher Education.

Eligibility

The successful candidate must be a graduate of doctoral status (awarded since 1 January 2013), and hold any degree from NUI. This can be a Bachelor's Degree, Master's Degree or Doctoral Degree.

Applications

A wide variety of proposals are welcome under the broad area of Higher Education. This includes proposals from all Social Science disciplines, including Business Studies and cross/inter-disciplinary studies.

Applications for research are particularly encouraged on, but not limited to, The Irish University in the 21st Century.

Application Forms and Regulations can be found at www.nui.ie/awards.

Previous Recipient

Dr Aline Courtois was the 2014 recipient of the NUI Dr Garret FitzGerald Post-Doctoral Fellowship in the Social Sciences. She undertook her research on International Student Mobility in the NUI offices on Merrion Square in 2015/2016.

NUI held a Seminar on 5 December 2017 to showcase Dr Courtois' research from her Fellowship, entitled "The Significance of International Student Mobility in Students' Strategies at Third Level in Ireland". A copy of Dr Courtois' research paper can be downloaded from www.nui.ie.

The closing date for applications is Monday, 8 October 2018.
