

NUI Awards Data Protection Statement

The National University of Ireland is committed to a policy of protecting the rights and privacy of individuals (including students, staff and others) in accordance with the European General Data Protection Regulation (as per the Data Protection Act, 2018).

- All personal data received and processed in relation to awards will be used fairly, in order to process and administer the relevant award.
- Personal data is retained by NUI for a maximum period of six years for all candidates.
- Personal data will not be disclosed to any unspecified third party unlawfully. On the expiry of the stated retention period, recipients' personal data will be destroyed.
- Further information is available in NUI's Data Protection policy, accessible at http://www.nui.ie/about/pdf/data_protection/NUI_Data_Protection_Policy.pdf
- Person(s) whose personal data is processed and retained by NUI in relation to awards can contact NUI at any time to request a change to, or deletion of their personal data, subject to the regulations governing the relevant award. Such requests can be made by emailing: awards@nui.ie.
