Seanad Éireann Information for Voters (NUI Constituency)

INTRODUCTION

The legal basis for the University Seanad Éireann elections is Bunreacht na hÉireann, Article 18(4) and the relevant Act is the Seanad Electoral (University Members) Act, 1937. Under that Act, The National University Constituency elects three members of Senate, and Dublin University (Trinity) Constituency also elects three members of Senate. (The Constitution was amended in 1979 to allow for legislation whereby the University constituencies would include other third level institutions and the election would be "...of so many members of Seanad Éireann as may be fixed by law in substitution for an equal number of the members to be elected..." pursuant to Article 18(4)(1) - to date no further legislation has been enacted.)

For the convenience of voters an information pack for graduates of relevant documents is available for download which includes the following:

- Frequently asked questions
- List of Institutions in the NUI Seanad Éireann Constituency
- Graduate Registration/ Update Form (Irish and English versions)

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1 SEANAD ÉIREANN

What is Seanad Éireann?

Seanad Éireann is the Upper House of the Irish Legislature and is composed of sixty members. Three members are voted by the graduates of National University of Ireland and three by the graduates of University of Dublin (Trinity College). These are called the University Constituencies.

A Seanad Éireann election in the University Constituencies takes place within 90 days of the dissolution of Dáil Éireann, and is strictly a postal vote.

When does the Seanad Éireann election take place?

Seanad Elections take place within 90 days of the dissolution of Dáil Éireann, and is strictly a postal vote. Presuming that more than three candidates are nominated, ballot papers are issued to all registered graduates.

The current Seanad Éireann Register contains the names of 112,216 electors.

What institutions comprise the NUI constituency?

The Constituent Universities, Recognised Colleges and Colleges which were formerly Recognised Colleges (the latter only for the period when they were within the NUI federation). Please see Institutions in the NUI Seanad Éireann Constituency page.

Are all NUI graduates automatically eligible to vote in Seanad elections?

No. Graduates must be citizens of Ireland and must claim to be registered.

2 THE REGISTER

What is the Seanad Register?

The Seanad Éireann Register published on 1st June each year is a list of the names, addresses and qualifications of National University of Ireland (NUI) graduates, other than honorary graduates, who are citizens of Ireland and who have registered to vote in Seanad Éireann elections (NUI constituency).

Registration on the register is not automatic; graduates must claim to be registered.

How Can I Register?

Graduates must complete, sign and return a Registration Claim Form to NUI. The form can be downloaded from the National University of Ireland website:

www.nui.ie/elections/seanad-register.asp

Completed forms should be returned by post to:

National University of Ireland
Records Office
49 Merrion Square
Dublin 2 D02 V583
Ireland

Alternatively graduates can request a form by writing or emailing NUI. Forms can also be scanned, attached to an email and sent to: records@nui.ie

To ensure that you retain your vote, graduates should inform NUI of any changes of name and address..

Once the revised Register has been published, is it possible to amend an address?

Yes, a graduate may, at any time, ensure that his/her details are up-to-date by posting a completed Registration Claim / Graduate Update Form to NUI (address below),

National University of Ireland
Records Office
49 Merrion Square
Dublin 2 D02 V583
Ireland

or by emailing the following details to records@nui.ie

- full name (forename[s] and surname) at registration
- any other form of name used (e.g. Irish, single, married etc)
- date of birth
- NUI degree(s) and other NUI qualification(s)
- year(s) of conferring(s) and NUI institution(s) where conferred
- previous address (for identification purposes)
- current address

The death of a graduate may also be notified to NUI at any time either in writing or by email.

Are names ever removed from the Register?

Yes.

- on receipt of written request by a graduate to have his/her name removed
- on receipt of notification of the death of a graduate
- as provided by the Electoral (Amendment) Act 2001: 'after reasonable enquiry by the registration officer, whose address or the address to which the ballot paper is to be sent is unknown'. (S. 56)

Please note that any graduate whose name is removed from the Seanad Register under this provision and who wishes to be listed as an elector again, must submit a Registration Claim Form in the prescribed manner.

What Register will be used for the Seanad Election?

Once the Dáil is dissolved, the Seanad Register in use at that time will be the Register used for the Seanad Election. If the date of dissolution occurs a short time before 1st June, the Registration Officer will consult with the Minister of Environment Heritage and Local Government as to whether the newly revised Register may be used.

This happened in 1997 and 2002, and in both cases permission was given to use the revised Register.

For the Seanad Éireann Election in 2020 only those graduates whose names are listed in the current NUI Seanad Éireann Register of Electors, as published on the 1st June 2019, are eligible to vote in the NUI constituency.

Who may purchase a Seanad Register?

Anyone may purchase the Seanad Register, either as a hard copy or on disc (subject to the provisions of the Data Protection Acts). The cost of the Register is calculated on a prescribed formula, and currently costs €169 in either format.

The Seanad Register may be used only for electoral purposes.

3 ELECTION

When will the election be held?

The Election will take place on 31 March 2020.

Timeline

For the Seanad Éireann Election 2020 (NUI Constituency) the relevant dates are as follows:

- the date of close of nominations, Friday, 14 February 2020 at 12 midday
- the date of issue (ie posting) of ballot papers, Friday 28 February 2020
- the date of the election (close of poll), Tuesday 31 March 2020 at 11am

The day and hour at which the poll in the university constituencies will close shall be Tuesday 31 March 2020 at 11am (votes must be returned by post)

How will I know who is going forward for election?

The names of the candidates will be posted on this website immediately after the close of nominations. Candidates' names and details will also, of course, be listed on the ballot paper.

Who can vote in the NUI constituency?

For the Seanad Éireann Election in 2020 only those graduates whose names are listed in the current NUI Seanad Éireann Register of Electors, as published on the 1st June 2019, are eligible to vote in the NUI constituency.

4 THE BALLOT PAPER

How and when will the ballot papers be sent to the electorate?

Ballot Papers are sent by registered post on the date set out in the Minister's Order.

Because of the size of the two university electorates - currently 112,216 for NUI, and approximately 54,000 for University of Dublin (Trinity College) - delivery of the registered post may take a number of days from the date of issue.

Delivery of ballot papers sent to addresses overseas depend on local postal services.

What will I receive?

Each graduate listed in the current register will receive an envelope by registered post containing:

- Ballot Paper
- Declaration of Identify Form/Instructions to Voter
- Small brown ballot paper envelope
- Large white self-addressed return envelope

The identify form must be signed by the voter and by a witness and returned with the ballot paper. Failure to return both documents will deem the vote to be invalid.

The ballot paper should be placed separately in the small brown envelope marked Ballot Paper Envelope.

The small brown ballot paper envelope (containing the ballot paper) and the signed declaration of identify form should then be placed in the large white self-addressed return envelope addressed to the Returning Officer and returned by post.

No stamp is required if posted within the Republic of Ireland.

The close of poll date will appear on the registered envelope and on top of the Ballot Paper.

How and when will the ballot papers be sent to the electorate?

Voting Papers are issued by registered post on the date set out in the Minister's Order. Because of the size of the two university electorates - currently over 112,216 for NUI, and approximately 65,000 for University of Dublin (Trinity College) - delivery of the registered post may take a number of days from the date of issue.

Delivery of ballot papers sent to addresses overseas may be slower, depending on the efficiency of the local postal service.

What happens if the elector is not at the address to sign for the registered post?

The post person should leave a docket letting the addressee know that the post can be collected from the Post Office; if uncollected after three days, the envelope will be returned to NUI.

On request, the ballot paper will be re-sent, again by registered post, provided the original envelope has been returned undelivered to NUI.

How will an elector know the date, time and place of the close of poll?

The date of the close of poll will appear on the label of the envelope sent to each elector and on the ballot paper itself. Agents of the candidates will be notified in writing of the time and place at which the count will take place. The information will also be available on the NUI website and Social Media pages.
