Aguisín 1: Comóradh Céad Bliain Ollscoil na hÉireann

Appendix 1: Centenary of the National University of Ireland

Píos reachtaíochta stairiúil ab ea Acht Ollscoileanna na hÉireann, 1908, a chuir deireadh go foirmeálta le tréimhe shuaithe in oideachas tríú leibhéal na hÉireann agus a d'osail caibidil nua agus nuálaíoch: a bhunaigh dhá ollscoil ar leith – ceann amháin díobh i mBéal Feirste, in ionad sean-Choláiste na Ríona den Ollscoil Ríoga, agus an ceann eile lárnaite i mBaile Átha Cliath, ollscoil fheidearálach ina raibh coláistí na hOllscoile Ríoga de Bhaile Átha Cliath, Corcaigh agus Gaillimh, athchumtha mar Chomh-Choláistí d'Ollscoil nua na hÉireann..

Sa bhliain 2008, rinne OÉ ceiliúradh ar chéad bliain ar an saol. Is iomaí athrú suntasach a a tharla thar na mblianta, go háirithe nuair a ritheadh Acht na nOllscoileanna i 1997, a rinneadh na Comh-Choláistí i mBaile Átha Cliath, Corcaigh agus Gaillimh a athbhuí mar Chomh-Ollscoileanna, agus a rinneadh an Coláiste Aitheanta (Coláiste Phádraig, Má Nuad) a athstruchtúrú mar Ollscoil na hÉireann, Má Nuad – Comh-Ollscoil nua.

Cuireadh tús le comóradh an chéid ar an 3 Nollaig 2007 agus chríochnaigh an ceiliúradh le mórchomhdháil agus bronnadh céime speisialta ar an 3 Nollaig 2008. Comóradh céad bliain ón gcéad chruinniú de Sheanad OÉ ar an lá céanna a nochtáíodh prótráid den Seansailéir, an Dr. Garret FitzGerald. Tá liosta de na hócáidí ar fad thíos.

The Irish Universities Act 1908 was a historic piece of legislation, formally closing a turbulent chapter in Irish third level education and opening a new and innovational chapter: establishing two separate universities, one in Belfast, replacing the old Queen's College of the Royal University, the other with its seat in Dublin, a federal university comprising the Royal University colleges of Dublin, Cork and Galway, re-structured as Constituent Colleges of the new National University of Ireland.

In 2008, NUI celebrated one hundred years in existence. Many profound changes had taken place over the century, not least the enactment in 1997 of the pivotal Universities Act, which re-constituted the Dublin, Cork and Galway Constituent Colleges as Constituent Universities, and re-structured the Recognised College (St. Patrick's College, Maynooth) as National University of Ireland, Maynooth - a new Constituent University.

Centenary celebrations began on 3 December 2007 and culminated in a major conference and special honorary conferring on 3 December 2008. Subsequently the centenary of the first NUI Senate meeting was celebrated on the same day that a portrait of the Chancellor, Dr. Garret FitzGerald was unveiled. All events are listed below.

Siombail an Chéid

Buaicphointe i gceiliúradh an chéid OÉ ab ea eisiúint an stampa cuimhneacháin 55c ag An Post. Dhear Catherine Pearson ón gColáiste Náisiúna Ealaíne is Deartha an stampa cuimhneacháin. Ba é a dearadh an iontráil a bhuaigh comórtas a d’eagraigh An Post agus an Coláiste Náisiúna Ealaíne is Deartha (NCAD), atá ina Choláiste Aitheanta d’Ollscoil na hÉireann. Bá é dáta a chéad eisiúna na Dé hAoine an 19 Meán Fómhair 2008.

Is í an fómhá a roghnaíodh do stampa an chéid ná sraith de leabhair a léiríonn eolas agus oideachas. Tá na leabhair comhtháite i lógó speisialta an chéid OÉ, ina bhfuil an Réalt Eolais ó armas OÉ.

Centenary Symbols

A high point in the NUI centenary celebrations was the issue by An Post of a special 55c commemorative stamp. The centenary stamp was designed by Catherine Pearson of the National College of Art and Design. Her design was the winning entry in a competition organised jointly by An Post and the National College of Art & Design (NCAD), which is a Recognised College of the National University of Ireland. The date of first issue was Friday 19th September 2008.

The image chosen for the centenary stamp is of a series of books representing knowledge and education. The books have been integrated into the special NUI centenary logo, which featured the star of knowledge taken from the NUI coat-of-arms.
